

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

It's time for an evaluation at work!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What do you say when you want to share your opinion with a classmate or friend?

Can Do Statements

- I can introduce an opinion.
- I can talk or report about things, actions and events in the past.
- I can talk about jobs and work.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa has a meeting with her boss. What's it about? What will he say?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Restaurant Manager: Hello Ms. Wright. Please have a seat. We are here to talk about your performance so far.
- Vanessa: Yes.
- Restaurant Manager: In our opinion, we think you are doing well.
- Vanessa: Thank you.
- Restaurant Manager: As far as I understand, Daniel believes you have great potential. He said you caught on quickly and are a quick learner.
- Vanessa: Thank you very much. That means a lot to me. I think he is a great teacher.
- Restaurant Manager: I'm very impressed by your actions, especially how you handled the incident last week. You sent the customer's dish back to the kitchen to be replaced. It seems to me, you followed the restaurant's procedure to a T. You told the customer they wouldn't be charged for the dish and offered them a meal on the house.
- Vanessa: I was just doing my job.
- Restaurant Manager: Ms. Wright. From my point of view, you'll be ready for a promotion in no time. In the meantime, I have a new position for you. Come in tomorrow to see Colette Brown.

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is at work. What did she do?

Instructions: Draw a line from the first part of the statement on the left to the second part on the right.

- | | |
|----------------------------|--|
| 1. I'm very | restaurant's procedure to a T. |
| 2. You handled | just doing my job. |
| 3. You sent the customer's | impressed by your actions. |
| 4. You followed | they wouldn't be charged for the dish. |
| 5. You told the customer, | offered a meal on the house. |
| 6. They were | the incident last week. |
| 7. I was | dish back to the kitchen to be replaced. |

Let's Practice!

The manager talks about the job. What does he say?

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

performance
quick learner promotion

potential procedure
position

caught on on the house

We are here to talk about your _____ so far. We believe you have great
_____. You _____ quickly and are a _____.

You followed the restaurant's _____ and offered them a meal _____.

Ms. Wright, you'll be ready for a _____.

I have a new _____ for you.

Extension Activity

You are going to role-play!

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Read the role card.
- Choose a role.
- Create a short dialogue (6-7 lines) about the situation.
- Practice with your partner.
- Switch roles.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about actions and events in the past.

☐ ☐

I talk about jobs and work.

☐ ☐

I introduce an opinion.

☐ ☐

I switch roles.

☐ ☐

Role 1: You want a raise. Talk about actions and events that happened to prove you are a hard worker.

Role 2: Your employee wants a raise. They tell you why. Introduce your opinion. Share your opinion.

Target Words

- to replace (verb): to take the place of something
e.g. Your dish is going to be replaced.
- procedure (noun): a way of doing something
e.g. You followed the company's procedure.
- to a T (expression): exactly; perfectly
e.g. They were followed to a T.
- on the house (expression): no charge; free
e.g. This meal is on the house.
- in no time (expression): very quickly
e.g. You will be ready in no time!
- potential (noun): have an ability that could develop to make you very good at something e.g. We believe you have the potential to be a great chef.
- to catch on (verb): to begin to understand or realize something e.g. You caught on very quickly.
- learner (noun): a person who learns how to do something e.g. You are a quick learner.
- means a lot (expression): used to show you appreciate something e.g. Thank you. That means a lot to me.

Learning Points

Simple Past Tense

You can use the Simple Past tense to talk and report about actions and events that are finished.

Remember, there are Regular and Irregular verbs.

Examples:

- We are impressed by your work.
- He said you asked a lot of questions.
- You sent the dish back to the kitchen.

Introducing an Opinion

You use the following phrases to introduce your opinion to someone else:

I think ...

In my/our opinion ...

As far as I understand ...

From my point of view ...

I would ...

I think you could ...

