Let's Start!

1 bedroom? A kitchen? What's in the condo?

Learning Outcome

Describe rooms, homes and objects in buildings in common social and work situations.

Ask your partner:

- What's a special room in your house? Why?
- Is there a special object in it?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about rooms and objects in an apartment.
- I can compare objects, prices and places.
- I can talk about what I have got to do.

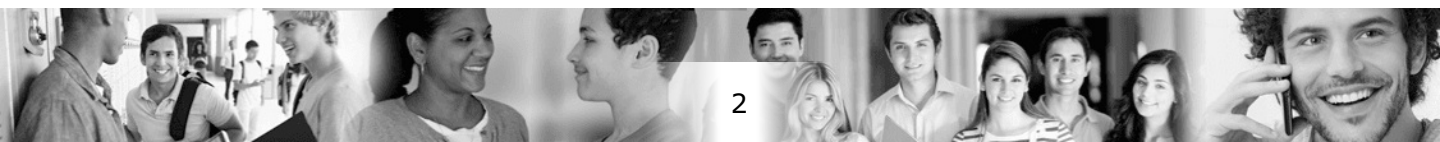

Let's Explore!

Vanessa calls the apartment manager about the listing.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: I have got to call this number. Hi. I'm calling about your listing.
Apartment Manager: What'd you like to know?
Vanessa: How big is it?
Apartment Manager: It's a one-bedroom. It's as big as the other one-bedrooms. There's a living room, dining room, the usual. It's furnished with a refrigerator, washer and dryer, stove, and oven.
Vanessa: Okay. How many square feet is it? What about the rent?
Apartment Manager: 1,500 square feet for $1500 a month.
Vanessa: That's a little steep. I found an apartment not as expensive as this one a few blocks down. It was bigger too. Do I have to sign a lease?
Apartment Manager: Yes, you can cancel the agreement during that period but you lose your deposit.
Vanessa: How much is the deposit?
Apartment Manager: $550.
Vanessa: Do I get the deposit back when I move out?
Apartment Manager: We return the deposit, minus a small fee for cleaning. We have got to clean the apartment for the next tenant.
Vanessa: I have got to visit. Can I visit the apartment tomorrow morning?
Apartment Manager: Sure.

Let's Practice!

What does Vanessa have to do?

Instructions: Re-read the dialogue. Read the text. Check off the correct box in the table. There is one answer per question.

Target Words

- bedroom (noun): a room for sleeping in e.g. It's a one-bedroom condo.
- living room (noun): the main room in a house where people relax
e.g. The living room has a large television.
- to furnish (verb): to provide things in a room
e.g. Is the living room furnished?
- refrigerator (noun): a large piece of kitchen equipment you use to keep food cool
e.g. The kitchen includes a refrigerator.
- washer and dryer (expression): a washing machine and a clothes dryer
e.g. I have to buy a washer and dryer.
- square foot (noun): a unit of area equal to one foot by one foot e.g. The condo is 1,500 square feet.
- rent (noun): the money you pay to use a place that belongs to someone else
e.g. How much is the rent?
- steep (adjective): high; expensive
e.g. That's a little steep for me.
- lease (noun): an agreement that allows you to use a building for a period of time, in return for rent
e.g. Do I have to sign a lease?
- tenant (noun): a person who lives in an apartment and pays rent
e.g. We have got to clean the apartment for the next tenant.

Learning Points

Have Got

You can use have got + infinitive to talk about obligation (something you must do) or talk about an arrangement for the future that is already made.

Examples:

- I have got to call this number.
- I have got to book a tour of the apartment.
- We have got to clean the apartment for the next tenant.

Comparatives

When you compare two things you use a comparative. You can use as ... as.

We can show that two things are equal using as + adjective + as.

There are no differences between the two compared things.

For example:

This apartment is as nice as the other one.

This red couch is as big as the black couch.

When we use this structure, the first thing mentioned is 'less' than the second thing.

For example:

This place is not as cheap as the other apartment.
