Let's Start!

Where can you find some listings? Online? In the newspaper?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about methods of communication and communication technology in common social situations.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about jobs and work.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.
- I can use words to describe general quantities.

Ask your partner:

- Do you look at listings?
- What are they for?

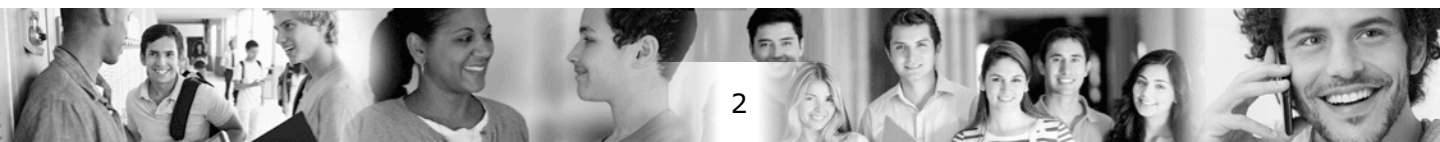

Let's Explore!

Vanessa chats with her friend Mika. What are they chatting about?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Mika: How's your job? Will you give the manager my resume, please? I need a job! I want to gain some work experience.
- Vanessa: Sure, they need a waitress. How did you find your apartment? I'm looking for one to rent.
- Mika: You can check on the bulletin boards at school.
- Vanessa: Bulletin board? Will there be anything there?
- Mika: You won't find many apartment listings but there's a few there.
- Vanessa: Where else?
- Mika: Look in the newspaper or on the Internet. There are also a lot of listings online.
- Vanessa: Those are good ideas. I'll look tonight.
- Mika: There are some good apartments just across the street from the school. They'll cost a little more and they can be noisy sometimes.
- Vanessa: I'll see if there are any vacancies.
- Mika: Do you know of any other job opportunities?
- Vanessa: No, but I'll keep an eye out. Will you go apartment hunting with me?
- Mika: Of course!

Let's Practice!

How many listings did Vanessa and Mika talk about?

Learning Points

Future Tense

When you use the Future tense in the interrogative form, you can use the auxiliary will.

To create a yes or no question, use:

Will (or Won't) + subject + base form of the verb.

Will you come look at apartments with me?

Wh- questions are questions that require more information in their answers. Typical wh- words are what, where, when, why, who, how, how many, how much.

To form a Wh- question use:

Wh- word + will (or won't) + subject + base form of the verb.

Where will I look online?

Quantifiers

You use quantifiers to talk about the quantity or amount of something.

Remember there are general and specific quantifiers.

	General Quantifiers	Specific Quantifiers
Count Nouns	All Most Many Some Any A few A lot of A couple of No	All of Most of Many of Some of Any of A few of A lot of (the ...) A couple of (the ...) None of
Non-Count Nouns	All Some Any A little Much No	All of Some of Any of A little Much of None of

Examples:

- You won't find many listings there.
- There are no listings on the board.
- There are some online.
- Will you send me a few?
