Let's Start!

Graduation? A new job? Let's talk about the events in our lives!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about people's jobs and places of work in communicative situations.

Ask your partner:

- What is an important event in your life?
- Why do you remember this event?
How important is this event in your life?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about key life events.
- I can talk about things, actions and events in the future.
- I can talk about jobs and work.

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Sally talk about life. What events are happening in Vanessa's life?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Hey Sally! How's Moscow?
Sally: It's fantastic! I will send you some cool pictures.
Vanessa: I'll visit Russia someday.
Sally: I'll buy you a ticket for your birthday next year!
Vanessa: You don't have to do that.
Sally: It'll be an exciting year for you. Your graduation is coming up!
Vanessa: I'm nervous! After graduation, I will need to look for an apartment. Then, I'm moving out on my own.
Sally: To your own place?
Vanessa: Yeah and I have a performance evaluation coming up.
Sally: Your two week trial period is done?
Vanessa: Yes, it'll be two weeks this Tuesday.
Sally: That was quick. Are you going to get a promotion? Become the head chef?
Vanessa: No way! I'm not ready for that! I need more experience!
Sally: Do you want to start your own catering business?
Vanessa: Not anytime soon.
Sally: You can start one after you get married and have 2 kids!
Vanessa: Oh, Sally! I have to go. I'll message you later.

Learning Points

Key Life Events

Life events are important things that happen during your life.

You use expressions like life-changing or Did you know that ... ? to talk about key life events.

You use an expression like someday to talk about a life event in the future. You cannot be sure about it.

Event	Expressions
first day of school/work birthday graduation getting a job starting a business promotion wedding having kids anniversary (10th/25th) retiring	memorable eventful life-changing Did you know that ... ? I/It was so ... When was the last time ... ? someday

Future Tense

When you use the Future tense in the affirmative form, you can use the auxiliary will.

Structure: will + base form of the verb

Short Form: 'll + base form of the verb

You can use this form to:

- make a prediction:

It will be an exciting year for you.

- make an offer to do something for someone else in the future:

I will buy you a ticket for your birthday.

- talk about a decision made now:

I will send you photos of my trip.
